ABSTRACT

Compiled to accompany a program of instruction in the use of the Princeton University Psychology Library and its resources, these bibliographies provide citations for reference books in seven major categories: (1) guides to the literature; (2) dictionaries (five subgroupings); (3) encyclopedias; (4) indexing and abstracting serials, both in the library and in other library locations; (5) tests and measurements; (6) directories and biographies; and (7) periodicals. The library call number follows each entry. (JD)

Preface

These bibliographies were compiled to accompany a program of instruction in the use of the Princeton University Psychology Library and its resources.

Following the entry for each title is its library call number. Items marked (SW) are located in the Psychology Library; items marked [REF] are in the Psychology Library reference section; items marked [Index table] are shelved on the table in the reference section. The location of items held in other campus libraries is noted.

For assistance in locating and using these or any library materials, please consult the staff.

Thanks to Terry Caton for her typing of this guide.
